LEWIS, HAVILAND & CO.,

No. 101 CHAMBERS-STREET, NEW-YORK.

Having no opposition in the cash market or cash auctions this season, were induced to buy too heavy for the times, and are now disposed to sell at almost any price to make a quick reduction of their stock.

If the neighbors have had cause heretofore (as they seem to think they have) to slander L. H. & Co. for selling too cheap, they will have full reason now, as all goods will henceforward be slaughtered in grave earnest.

There will now be lively times among the Dry Goods."

Any price you please for cash," is the cry.

While some shippers consider it a serious crime to sell cheap,

L. H. & Co. have found the mottoes
